Privacy and Personal Information Protection Notice

The information you provide in this application will enable us to assess your application under the Coastal Protection Act 1979. If the information is not provided, your application may not be accepted. You have the right to access and have corrected, information provided in your application. This information will only be used for the purposes of administering the Coastal Protection Act 1979 and other uses permitted by legislation.

Your application will be available to Councillors and Council Officers. Members of the public have certain rights of access to information and documents held by Council under the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (GIPA), and under the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) to the extent permitted by those Acts.

Warringah Council is to be regarded as the agency that holds the information, which will be stored on Council's records management system or in archives and may be displayed on E-Services Online (except as regards to personal particulars). You have a right to access information within the meaning of the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) on application to Council, and to have that information updated or corrected as necessary. Please contact Warringah Council if the information you have provided is incorrect or changes or if access is otherwise sought to the information. In addition, a person may request that any material that is available (or is to be made available) for public inspection by or under the Local Government Act 1993 (NSW) be prepared or amended so as to omit or remove any matter that would disclose or discloses the person's place of living if the person considers that the disclosure would place or places the personal safety of the person or of members of the person's family at risk. Any such request must be made to Council's General Manager: see s.739 of the Local Government Act 1993 (NSW).
